

A Nurtured Child

A NURTURED CHILD LAUNCHED A NEW PODCAST “A NURTURED CHILD” HOSTED BY PIA MATTIX DAVIS

HOUSTON, February 3, 2019— A Nurtured Child, the go to source for Positive Parenting and Positive Discipline support for Black women, launched a podcast to connect in a different way with the almost 10,000 members of its Facebook group community, (<http://www.anurturedchild.com>). The conversations focus on the various aspects of Black life that positively and negatively impact relationships with Black Mothers and their children.

Physical, emotional and mental abuse are but one of the many damaging legacies of slavery and colonialism that continue to weaken the global Black community. Through conversations and open forums, A Nurtured Child is changing the way that over 9,000 black women interact with their children.

On the most recent episode Pia Mattix Davis talked with two women who began their parenting journey as spankers with their first child, but successfully transitioned to respectful parenting practices with their youngest children.

A Nurtured Child Member Jeniffer Lumaav Revell writes, “I’m so grateful for this group, great counsel!”

Fans of the podcast, the Facebook Group and the Webpage can contact Pia Mattix Davis via email at info@anurturedchild.org to provide feedback and ideas for the podcast, or to become a guest on the show.

About A Nurtured Child

A Nurtured Child based out of Houston, TX, is an online community for Black American moms and dads and mothers and fathers of African Descent to support one another in their journey to parent with empathy, mutual respect, healthy attachment, proactive parenting, and positive discipline. Members and clients receive ongoing support as they learn healthy ways to parent their children. To meet the needs of Black mothers with nonblack spouses and partners, Growing Together. A Nurtured Child was created. Growing Together. A Nurtured Child is open to all who wish to learn to parent with empathy, mutual respect, proactive parenting, positive discipline and healthy attachment.
